Crisis Negotiation for Tactical Officers & First Responders

DATE: November 29-30, 2017

Registration Ends: November 13, 2017

TIME: 8:00 AM—5:00 PM      16 Hours

LOCATION: NITAB Training Room, 527 Colman Drive, Rockford, IL (NEW LOCATION)

INSTRUCTOR: Michael Wargo, Kebcor

Who Should Attend: All tactical officers, negotiators, first responders and supervisors who want to improve these behaviors in coordination with homeland security goals will find this program informative, interactive and beneficial.

Overall Instruction: Instruction will begin by covering the basic theoretical and practical aspects of Crisis Negotiation with emphasis on Homeland Security. This will serve as the framework for overall instruction. As the class progresses, more detailed instruction will be added to augment the gathering of information building on the foundation that has been laid in previous instruction blocks. Instruction will conclude with the attendees having the opportunity to conduct their own crisis/negotiation operation given a set of facts taken from other incidents. Each attendee will continue the same scenario as the previous attendee(s).

Goals and Objectives: At the end of this course of instruction, the attendees will be able to:

- Distinguish between the proper first responses from one that is not proper to mitigate damage, injury or death
- List basic negotiation functions in addition to proper dialogue and information gathering.
- Identify the types of individuals/groups who might take hostages in crisis situations in addition to criminals or terrorists.
- Compare the difference between expressive and instrumental hostage takers.
- List the different tactics to be used in crisis situations for different hostage taker types.
- Identify methods that negotiators, tactical personnel and incident command can be used in tandem to bring a successful resolution to the incident.
- Identify the legal and policy concerns to bring a proper resolution to a crisis/hostage incident.

Partial funding provided by Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board and MTU#1's request for certification of this course has been approved by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board
