Basic CQB/SWAT Course

DATE: October 16-20, 2017

Registration Ends: September 15, 2017

TIME: 8:00 AM—4:00 PM 40+ Hours (two night exercises- hours vary)

LOCATION: ADAMAX Range, Lincoln, IL

INSTRUCTOR: Ron Yanar, ADAMAX

NOTE- Total course time often exceeds the 40-hour time line. There are two night exercises that may exceed an 8-hour day depending on the team's organization skills and overall ability. Students will be on their feet for considerable amount of this course. It is not overly strenuous, but attendees should have a moderate level of endurance.

COURSE CONTENT: The primary goal throughout this course is to provides trainees with the core skills they will need to operate on a team. It will provide formative training to entry level SWAT operators concentrating on dynamic methods for hostage rescue and high risk warrant service; with a focus on officer safety. These methods have flexible applications and are easily employed on a variety of floor plans. This is live fire, shoot house training.

The curriculum is devised of realistic and practical skills that allow graduates to be operationally ready upon graduation. The methods presented emphasize officer safety without sacrificing speed and are flexible to apply to a variety of floor plans and situations.

Doorway drills	Vehicle assaults
Distraction devices	Scenario exercises
Night mission	Team movement
Assault course	CQB shooting drills
Four phase mission profile	Core breaching tasks
Fitting personal equipment	Dynamic room clearing
Briefings and planning	reorganization & withdraw

This course hits the ground running. Day 1 has the most classroom time of the week. From that point, officers will be presented new lessons in class, rehearse them and then practice them through live fire drills and exercises. Having an onsite shoot house allows trainees to perfect skill in a realistic setting.

Trainees will breach doors and negotiate a variety of floor plans during the week. The course culminates with two graded, full profile mission FTXs.
