Evidence Law Analysis

-Distant Learning Only-

DATE: November 18, 2020

Registration Ends: November 10, 2020

TIME: 8:00 AM—10:00 AM 2 Hours

LOCATION: Distant Learning Only: All Locations-Must Have Camera-Contact MTU1 Office

INSTRUCTOR: Don Hays, Illinois Prosecutors Services, LLC

COURSE CONTENT: This presentation will feature a discussion of the problems that arise concerning the collection of evidence, the creation of report writing, and application of trial testimony. Included will be discussions of the most recent legislation and case law dealing with these topics.

The criminal process will be examined from its beginning to its end with special explanations concerning the importance of accurate and profession evidence collection, report writing, and trial testimony.

Specific topics to be discussed will be “chain of custody,” expert testimony, motions to suppress or exclude evidence, the preservation and destruction of evidence, the creation and use evidence and trial depositions, subpoena practice, and numerous other related topics.

Demonstrations and examples of problem areas of evidence collection, report writing, and trial testimony will be offered. Discussions will be offered concerning how to professionally deal with these problem areas in the 21st Century.

Partial funding provided by Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board and MTU#1’s request for certification of this course has been approved by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board
