COPY

A copy of Public Act 90-646 is included for your reference and file. Only those individuals pre-approved by Board staff are eligible to attend this special course. Mobile Team Units, as directed by Board staff, (as a condition of Board waiver), will conduct the written MFT exam and MFT range fire qualification to the Board approved officer and will send in the required Board paperwork. For purposes of completing the Board's D-1 form, the course title will be called 4-Hour Mandatory Firearms Training (PA 90-646) Waiver. Record the exam score and qualification scores on the Board's MFT course roster, Form D-1, and send information to the attention of Howard Rogers.

Officers will be given one opportunity to pass the MFT written exam and three chances to qualify with their service weapon, if they fail to pass the written exam and/or the qualification, record the results and send to Howard Rogers, they may have to complete the entire 40-Hour MFT course.

If you have questions or need additional discussion, please telephone me at 217/782-4540.
